Abraham the father of nations by Aretha Degulder

Ajam thought that his long tongue, devilish brain, full-hate and devilish heart, and dirty hands would still be free and it always and everywhere everyone would deceive people, Ajam felt the shadow of danger for years and was looking for this shadow for killing him, but this shadow is the spirit of God's revenge and anger, and he has chased him to trap him in the strangest era of the history of human creation and leave him in the hands of his allies to punish him justly.

I saw this interview last night. The interviewee is an Israeli military media official named Jonathan Conricus. He presents the same description of the Iranian regime and the tailses of this regime that we have presented to the world for a very long time, but unfortunately, the world was captured by his spies agents, and lobbies...

They have been trying to stop my efforts for years lately, and stop me or slow down, but the interesting thing is that I did not stop because God had promised me help.

He has promised me victory. He told me that we would solve the problems with each other's help, and it was when I saw myself in a dream that I was standing on a mountain overlooking Jerusalem and looking there. This is a bright and honest dream of 2006 or 2005.

With all my heart, in front of God, I announce to the people of the world that Israel will win over its enemies, and I and the great God are the helpers of Israel, and through me, the hand of God placed the powers of the world in Israel's line.

I make it clear that the victory of Israel will be the beginning of great changes in the world.

O people of Iran! you have no other way. You must join my front. If you become hostile to me, you have ruined yourself.

No one but God knows the details, but He has laid out the plan for the future, and His message is, "He will solve the problems with the help of Me, the Son of Man," and He told me this in the city(Jerusalem) that is the passage of the sky.

The star of my hometown is the closest star to the star of Jerusalem. Jerusalem is the base of the scales of divine justice in the end times, and the turpentine is the right side of this scale, which is heavier than the left side, and is drawn down and is closer to the base.

When the tiger unites with the lion and the leopard rushes to help, and the cat walks in front of them and shows the way, so it is easy to reach the fountain of victory. Because God has written this in his book.

In the most bitter moments of my life, I didn't disbelieve in God and I didn't curse him, I used to tell him that: You spread a trap for me to fall into, but I am your tool, how come I don't know your traps? O my support and light and the most beautiful concept in my life!

See how God helps me! In the blink of an eye, CNN, which has billions of dollars in assets and is one of the formidable media giants, will be disgraced in front of me, Because the creator God took his ear and forced him to kneel before me.

Today God's promise has been fulfilled. Israel will win over its insidious, cowardly, unscrupulous, and despicable enemies.

I am a friend and brother of Israel. Because God has written this in his book. I am God's witness. Whoever sees these signs and is hostile to me, there is no need to curse because God will make him-her miserable.

Believe me, those who have done bad things to me and put wood in the wheel of my works will not see any compassion and mercy from me. They will be punished. I am the standard because I belong to the right side of God's scale of justice, and the left side should punish the arrogant and the enemies of God and justice.

God the creator, Izad Enlil, has assigned angel Ezrail to the heights of the Dasenan to oversee the affairs. Izad Enlil told me three weeks ago: I am only four fingers away from thieves. Yes, he means the shelter in Dasan Mountain. It is known as Cancer there because it is terrible and deadly and no one can get out of its hands.

There is the land of Assyria. The place of death... Izad Enlil left his chariot there three weeks ago.

I encourage you all to join me as this is the final ultimatum. After that, hell will rule the earth, the end will be with the victory of God and the Anunnaki Izads, and I will be the right scale, and Jerusalem is the base of the scales, and my other brother Harran is the left scale, and the forehead of the scales is Shingal, and the handle of the scales is Wan, but from the moment from the beginning to the end of the war, no one except God knows the details.

Make up your mind and join the truth. If you join, you will survive and your descendants will remain on earth, if you don't, you will be destroyed.

This battle is the final battle and the duty of right and wrong will be clarified forever on earth.
