

Barjawan Bahram

By Azad Karimi.

The appearance of Bahram Warjawand or the Palace of Mars.

Warjawand in Gorani dialect and Barjawand in Sorani dialect means Viewpoint, observation tower, balcony, tower.

Kurdish language has five dialects and Gorani, Sorani are two of these dialects.

This is an old photo of Saqez Castle. I was born in this city. This castle was destroyed by the Iranian regime in February 1988. The Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps did this terrible act.

This palace has now become a mourning center for Shiites, while the people of Saqez are Sunnis and do not believe in traditional Shiite religious mourning.

With God's help, I will rebuild this palace.

It is mentioned in our ancient texts that Bahram i Warjawand appear in the last time.

Iranians do not know and basically no one knows what this phrase means. But I reveal this to you, according to the prophecies of the great Kurdish prophet Zoroaster, from the race of Elijah, the king of Kur-Dilmun (modern Saqez, the Anunnaki Angels' Paradise), when the end of the world is approaching, Bahram i Warjawand will appear.

In the book Dinkard, which was written in the ancient Kurdish language of the Dinawar region (Laki Palawi) during the Parthian kingdom, there are some things written about Bahram i Warjawand. All those who interpret this book mistakenly think that Bahram i Warjawand is one person, so everyone thinks they are the savior or Bahram.

But Bahram means Barkh-Kurdish or lamb-English, which is the symbol of the Scout Boar or the bell of the end of time. This boar was killed by the Izad Mardukh or Mithra. This boar or bell rang because it symbolized the beginning of creation. This boar is made of molten iron and is shiny red (Suraka, Sulaka, Chalpa, Cross, the Calf) and symbolizes the planet Mars.

Our ancient warriors, who were called Palla, attributed their courage to the Izad Mardukh and their sense of self-sacrifice to the red blood of this boar.

They called themselves Warjawand or the silverish high Watchtower because an anemone flower grew from the blood of this boar, in the center of which was a golden rotating cross, and it is the symbol of Mashiakh or the Warrior of the last time, and he is the one who returns life to the world with sacrifice.

He is the one who establishes justice and transforms the life of humanity. This tower symbolizes this flower and the silverish walls of this tower symbolize the red fire of the Kharuna or dragon of life.

Kharuna is the Ark of the Covenant.

Our ancient warriors called themselves Matir or Mardi, meaning martyr and sacrificer. Mardi means masculine in Kurdish and in English is pronounced Martyr.

The Iranian regime had understood this and was hiding it out of fear of Israel. For this reason, he considered the Kurds as the cause of Israel and Kurdistan as part of Israel's territory and Saqqez as the center of the revival of the ancient civilization of the Old Testament, so he wanted to cover up everything by destroying this castle. But the Iranian regime is not greater than God. He wrote the destiny and I am the hand of God and reveal the truths. This moment is the promised moment. do not be scared! Try to help God and his hand so that you will be happy and alive in the future after the destruction of the Iranian regime. The world is coming to an end for the oppressors. Do not be oppressors and do not help oppressors.

The fulfillment of God's promise at this moment!
