

Oath of allegiance to bread and salt, loyalty

Written by Azad Karimi

Bread and salt, a traditional greeting in some Slavic, Nordic, Baltic, Balkan, and Middle Eastern countries

Source:Wikipedia

In the Mardukhi calendar, today is equal to the second day of the sixth month, Haruta.

Other names of Harut are Hrita, Trita, Khrita, Krita, Ashk , Asrita, Sruta, Srusha, Srushka.

This eye tear, which is a symbol of salt, is located in the saltiness of the Shuraawa spring water or the water of life.

This spring is the most sacred symbol of God's blessing, from which wheat, barley and vines grow.

Shuraawa water is located in Gawdan (Eternal Pool) under the eyes of Izad Anu in the middle of the scale of creation's justice.

Today is the day of loyalty. Today is the day of flour and salt. On this day, Izad Mardukh defeated Suritaj(Shurupaak, Shurapa, Shuraawa), the guardian of the crown of the sun, in Shuraawa, and he swore to flour and salt which is bread that he would be loyal to Mardukh forever . Bread is a mixture of water, flour and salt. The name of this bread is Hrita or Trita.

In Kurdish, wet bread is called Trit, Harit, Haris.

These two flowing tears are the symbol of Shrita or the hanging ropes or the rungs of the ladder of ascension to heaven. These two ropes are the two hands of God's mind, which was placed on the cluster of creation, which was a pyramid separated from the flesh of God's body and God injected his spirit or energy into it and this particle exploded and the creation manifested in its current form.

In the ancient Kurdish language, the salt mine was called Nmukha or Nmuka or Kanumakh or Kaanumak... a pronunciation of Anumaki.... Anumaki or Anunnaki are the famous Izads(angels)of God the creator, whose father and leader is Anu. They are also called Hanukhi.

Therefore, we can understand blood, which is the main liquid of the spirit of life, why it is salty.

As I said earlier, God brings these things to my mind so that you, who are like me, know that God wants to give you a message that the time has come for you to reach maturity in terms of reason and intelligence, and come out of that way of life you had for millions of years and enter a new age.

Interestingly, those who oppose me more strongly are those who are from my own people, the Kurds, and this is a sign of their primitiveness. But these people are very few because they are afraid of their material position and power, otherwise the Kurdish people are of my flesh and they will never deny me. They have never denied me and of course it is natural if there are people who disagree with me due to lack of information.

They are few. But my real enemies, as I said, are who now have power and money, and for their own survival, they extort our land, blood, nation, and ancestral funds and give them to others.

But the era of these few people is also over because a new era has arrived in which the truth will rule the world. But please hold on a little longer and have more hope.

Ambitious Kurds and non-Kurds have no way but to get out of this cycle of change. Destiny will remove them. Destiny is the cosmic order that was created by the wisdom of God the Creator and angels and Hamzadan guard and maintain it.