

KSC President Sara Rashid Engages in Key Discussions at the International Year of the Family Conference in Doha

Discussions aim to foster collaboration among nations to develop policies that support for migrant families.

Press Release

31 October 2024

Kurdistan Save the Children (KSC) President Sara Rashid is participating in the International Year of the Family conference taking place in Doha, Qatar.

The event brings together global leaders, policymakers and advocates to address pressing issues impacting migrant children and families.

During the conference, participants are exploring critical topics such as access to education, healthcare and social support for displaced families.

Sara Rashid's involvement underscores KSC's commitment to advocating for the rights and well-being of vulnerable children in the Kurdistan Region and beyond.

The discussions aim to foster collaboration among nations to develop innovative solutions and policies that promote family unity and support for migrant families.

Among the keynote speakers, Iraq's First Lady Shanaz Ibrahim Ahmed said: "Family values differ worldwide, and for many migrant families, maintaining these values is an additional responsibility that often falls on mothers."

She added: "We need policies focused on preventing migration by creating economic opportunities, addressing climate change, and, above all, ending wars."

As the conference progresses, KSC will provide updates on key outcomes and initiatives that emerge from this important gathering.
