This notes is dependent on five years ago when the Covid-19 had made more dark the world. I can't remember well how I knew Ulquiorra the teenager guy from South Africa, but I remember he sent me a friend request. I accepted his request and I started a memorable dialogue via a nice chat with him. I found his mother is passed away a few weeks ago and he was so sad. I asked him about his financial situation, he responded they are not rich but it was amazing when I asked him about sending money to him, he wrote to me fastly No Sir! Thank you! Your kindness is very greit. I asked him to let me take this photo from his profile, he told me Sure! You can do it. I was very busy at the time and I don't know how Facebook left me, but I had kept this precious gem. I had an idea about this photo, I wanted to use it in my international cultural interviews, but yesterday I changed my mind and so I will publish it as a standalone article.

Yesterday I heard, The Hungarian Prime Minister Mr. Viktor Orbán has declared his country leaves ICJ(International Court of Justice) in The Hague-Netherland.

On the other hand, yesterday, the French Foreign Minister announced that his country has filed a complaint against the Iranian regime at the International Court of Justice or ICJ. They did it when they were host of Prime minister and Minister of Foreign Affair of Israel.

But the story goes back to the previous year when the South African regime, in a provocative act and with the lure of dirty Iranian and Qatari petrodollars and the incitement of the Turkish regime, filed a complaint against the Israeli Prime Minister and the Israeli Minister of Defense in this court. The South African regime is an ally of the Iranian regime and one of the main brokers of money laundering and smuggling of sanctioned equipment to Iran. That is, the Iranian regime, which is under military and economic sanctions by the United States of America due to terrorist issues and the case of building a nuclear bomb, as well as sending money to terrorists in the Arab world, the South African regime ignores these sanctions.

On the other hand, the Iranian regime strongly opposes the existence of Israel and denies the Holocaust. It also launched a military provocation by sending missiles to Israel. The Iranian regime played a key role in the crimes of October 7, 2023, at the hands of the Palestinian terrorists Hamas, and it has also taken active step to harm Israel by sending money and weapons to the Lebanese terrorists Hezbollah and the Yemeni Houthi and Iraqi Hashd al Sha'bi.

The South African regime, with this unconventional action, caused a rift in world opinion regarding the legitimacy of this court. In fact, both this country, the court, and the judges of this court acted unilaterally. This may have caused temporary joy among Hamas supporters, but the discouragement caused by this action among freedom-loving and legal scholars around the world remained like a black mark on the conscience of the judiciary.

Instead of healing the wounds of its past at home, the South African regime has resorted to demagoguery internationally, which led to the expulsion of its ambassador from the United States. Yes! We all know what happened to the people of Africa during the apartheid regime, but remembering our own bitter past cannot justify our injustices towards others.

However, I reacted as an independent international journalist and protested against this South African stance. The South African regime has done nothing to hold the Iranian regime accountable for its countless crimes against the Iranian people, as well as the Kurds in Iran and Turkey or Iraq and Syria. Because this regime is seeking material benefits and is committing dishonorable acts under the guise of a "bitter past" and "defending human principles."

In the name of land reform, this regime is committing the same injustice against its citizens that the apartheid regime committed against its own people in the past. This is not justice. It is hypocrisy and terrorism and turning backs on the principles for which the men and women who made history in the world suffered endless misery, suffering, exile, and death.

Let's leave it at that... My African friend is now twenty years old and I don't know what he is doing. I hope he is successful and lives a long life of health, progress, wealth and love for his country and for the people of the world.

"Ulquiorra Dube" gave me a valuable gift...He sent his painting.

You see these valuable sentences on his Facebook Timeline:

I don't speak that much, I'm a friend. not an enemy.

He is 15 years old and lives in Johannesburg city, in South Africa.

we live in this world with our relationships and these relationships are either friendly or hostile. The neutral relationship has no meaning In this era when the people of the world are connected.

Hostile relationships waste human energy in every way, but the enemy factor must be identified.

The Kurds say Huf! on the one who shoots and hides the bow!

Thank you my friend Ulquiorra, Atlas took over the earth, but he is not responsible for the evil deeds of dictators and criminals of history.

Ulquiorra has three brothers and sisters. He is sad these days because of losing his mother...

He is a gift from God! Because he is an artist. He is a talented human...

If I had a son, I recommended him to learn stability and life lessons from Ulquiorra.

With my Honor Ulquiorra!
